

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy ("Policy") defines how WATCHERS APP LIMITED, registered in England and Wales under registration number 13562970 ("Watchers", "We"), collects and processes your personal data when you use the Watchers mobile application designed for synchronized viewing of audiovisual works and their discussion by several users (including films and series - hereinafter also referred to as the "Video Content") provided by third-party services.

Watchers is controller of the Application users' personal data and defines the purposes and terms for the processing of the Application users' personal data in this Policy.

You can send inquiries related to the processing of your personal data in connection with the use of the Application to: 4 Hill street, Mayfair, London W1J 5NE, United Kingdom or to the person responsible for data processing (Data Protection Officer) by e-mail: agaysin@watchers.io.

By using the Watchers mobile application, you agree to the Privacy Policy and agree to the collection and processing of your personal data by Watchers on the terms set forth herein. If you do not agree with the terms of processing of your personal data established by this Policy, you must refrain from using the Application.

1. Collection of Personal Data

When you use the Application, Watchers collects your personal data when you log into the Application, enter identification data to access third-party services providing the Video Content, interact with other users of the Application, and also enter into communication with Watchers. Watchers also collects data about your activity in the Application and about the device, through which you use the Application.

In particular, we collect information that you provide us:

- Your name, nickname, e-mail address, image (avatar), date of birth - to register and create an account to use the Application, personalize your user experience, as well as for Watchers to interact with you, including for marketing purposes;
- Information about your contacts in the scope of name and e-mail address to identify contacts with the installed Application and organize joint views of the Video Content with these contacts.

We also use the information that we collect automatically, including information about you and how you use the Application, your interactions with Watchers, as well as information about your network and network devices that you may be using to access the Application, including: history of your actions in the Application, interaction with emails and other messages received from Watchers, device identification numbers or other unique identifiers that are used when using the Application, characteristics of the device and software security (such as type and configuration), connection information, including its type (Wi-Fi, mobile internet), browsing statistics, IP address (which can provide general information about your location), information collected using cookies and other technologies.

This information is collected by Watchers in order to personalize user experience, simplify interaction with the product, localize and adapt the user's personal settings, as well as for marketing purposes.

With your consent, we also collect information from third-party companies, with which you have a contractual relationship (for example, we receive information about your Facebook friends, as well as access to the personal information in third-party services provided about you in accordance with an agreement between you and such third-party service), and other sources. If such information is received, Watchers will protect this information in accordance with the measures described in this Policy, as well as in accordance with possible additional restrictions set by the source of information.

The Application is intended for use by persons over 18 years old. Watchers does not collect or process personal data of children and persons under 18. If you are under 18 years old, you will not be able to get an account and use the Application on your own.

2. Use of Personal Data

Watchers uses your personal data to provide the services of the Application in full, to analyze, provide, and improve the operation of the Application, to personalize the services provided, as well as to interact with you on these and other matters.

In particular, the personal data is used to:

- determine your general location and provide localized content;
- provide you with an opportunity to communicate with other users of the Application;
- protect Watchers' systems, prevent fraudulent activities and ensure security of the Application;
- prevent, detect and investigate potentially prohibited and illegal activities, including fraud;
- analyze and understand the audience of the Application, improve the operation of the Application (including the experience of interacting with the user interface and functionality of the Application);
- interact with you about the Application, share with you news, details about new features and available content, and resolve your technical issues.

3. Transfer of Personal Data to Third Parties

Watchers may disclose personal data received from you to third parties to the extent justified by the purpose of such disclosure, namely:

- To third parties - partners of Watchers who provide Watchers with analytics, information and infrastructure services, as well as services in the field of information technology and security, in order to develop, customize and optimize the Application's operation;
- To other users of the Application in the amount of your account data, taking into account the privacy settings you have defined, for the fullest use of the functionality of the Application by you in conjunction with other users;

- To competent government authorities, the provision of information to which is mandatory in accordance with applicable law;
- To other third parties to whom you have explicitly agreed to transfer your data.

4. Protection of Personal Data

Watchers retains your personal data for as long as it is necessary to provide you with the Application services and fulfill an agreement with you. Unless prohibited by law, Watchers may retain some portions of your personal data even after you have stopped using the Application. In case of processing information for marketing purposes, Watchers will process your data for the duration of marketing activities or until you object to further processing of data for marketing purposes.

Watchers takes all necessary organizational and technical measures to protect confidentiality of your personal data and prevent unauthorized access thereto by third parties. The measures are created in accordance with applicable law in such a way as to provide a level of security that corresponds to the risks of processing your personal data.

5. Subject's Rights

In course of processing your personal data by Watchers, you have the right to request access to your personal data, correct or update outdated or incorrect personal data stored by Watchers. You can also request the deletion of the personal data stored and processed by Watchers.

With regard to the personal data that Watchers processes on the basis of your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by sending a corresponding written application to the addresses indicated in the Preamble.

When interacting with you in connection with providing access to your data, making changes, updates, deleting data and/or revoking consent, we may additionally request from you information that identifies you in order to verify the legitimacy of the request and to ensure that the request comes from you.

6. Changes to the Privacy Policy

Watchers shall have the right to introduce amendments to this Privacy Policy at any time by posting the current version on the website. The Application User shall be deemed to have read the changes to the Policy from the moment when its current version is provided by Watchers for public access.
